1. The Yugoslav Military Mission is preparing to leave Berlin by air from Gatow. A member of the mission named Franz allegedly flew from Hamburg about 1 July 1948 to locate provisional quarters for the entire mission in the West.
2. The Yugoslavs are selling sixteen cars, about half of their Berlin motor pool. The sales are being made through German agents to attract as little attention as possible.
3. Documents of the trade representatives and the military mission are being concealed in a bunker in Niederschönhausen. Source states that the papers are cemented into the walls.
4. The mission received no favors in the currency exchange obtaining a 1 to 10 rate.
